

French Farmhouses and Cottages (Country)

Bordeaux produces some of the best and certainly the most expensive wines in the world. Clive Coates The Wines of Bordeaux gives you the knowledge to choose confidently and avoid making expensive mistakes. This book focuses on the Bordeaux of today, it covers all the regions and includes the latest information on several hundred estates, which range from large Châteaux to small farmsteads. While there is plenty of information on the most famous Châteaux, it will also point you towards the up and coming estates with potential. Detailed information is given on the best vintages, tasting notes on the top wines and which ones give the best value for your money making choosing Bordeaux wines a pleasure.
