

Spanish Pilgrimage: Towns and Tale on the Camino de Santiago (Volume 1)

Prize-winning pilgrim stories and portraits of towns along the Way. Written with affection and bite, lovingly portraits of Spanish villages written with passion and verve. Readers describe them as: beautiful poetic writing, writing with Inspired metaphor, to a breathless walking rhythm. High spirited travel to inspire. As a winner of the Peter Cowan Short Story Prize, the judge wrote of Beating Time (on Belorado): An epic evocation of place. Yes, this story proves that you can produce an epic in a mere 488 words! Your ancient Basque and Spanish pilgrim towns of Arzua, Bermeo, St Jean Pied de Port, Najera, Ostabat, Belorado, Astorga, and Los Arcos are no less fascinating than Pamplona, Burgos, Bilbao and San Sebastian. This is inspiring travel writing, true to the uncompromized dictum Style is knowing who you are, what you want to say, and not giving a damn.
