

The Sino-Japanese Negotiations of 1915: Japanese and Chinese Documents and Chinese Official Statement (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from The Sino-Japanese Negotiations of 1915: Japanese and Chinese Documents and Chinese Official Statement A Conference on the Limitation of Armament was called on August 11, 1921, by the Government of the United States, to meet in Washington on November 11, 1921, the third anniversary of the signing of the armistice between the victorious Allied and Associated Powers and Germany. The representatives of the Powers originally invited to the Conference were the British Empire, France, Italy, and Japan, for the consideration of the question of the limitation of armament, and China for the discussion of Pacific and Far Eastern Questions. Later, representatives of Belgium, the Netherlands and Portugal, were invited to take part in the discussion of questions concerning the Pacific.
