

No Longer Ghosts

No Longer Ghosts is a day by day account of the operations of the 9th (Queens Royal) Lancers on the Western Front between August 1914 and August 1915. Initially started as a family history project, it has become a memorial and testament to the Other Ranks of the Old Contemptibles of 1914-15 whose names were not usually recorded in official histories and have been forgotten with the passage of time. I have tried to add some detail to these forgotten names using family reminiscences from my own family and from other families who have contributed, the aim being to make these forgotten names come back to life. I have cross referenced Regimental diaries, Casualty lists and eye witness accounts to give as graphic an account as I can.
