

A Time for Anger: The Myth of Neutrality

This is an 206 page softback authored by Franky Schaeffer and published by Crossway Books / Good News Publishers. There is a sad myth going around today - the myth of neutrality. According to this myth, the secular world gives every point of view an equal chance to be heard. And it works fairly well - UNLESS you're a Christian. In this powerful indictment of secular hypocrisy, the author shows how our supposedly neutral society ridicules, ignores and rejects the Christian point of view about morality, truth, science and almost every other area of life. It is a time for anger! A time for Christians to stand up for their faith; with Christian commitment and action.
