

At Home in Earlier Mt. Pleasant Michigan: A visit with our neighbors of the past.

Walk with us through the streets of this lumber/oil/university town in the center of Michigan, rooted in the 1855-established Saginaw-Chippewa Indian Reservation. Inside, we will visit the homes of hundreds of those who have come before us and, where possible, see how the structures have changed through the decades. Join author Jack R. Westbrook, whose five previous middle Michigan photo history books have put the spotlight on our areas past, on a photographic journey through the historic core of Mt. Pleasant and meet some of the residents who have added colorful threads to the tapestry of our community's past. A portion of the proceeds from the sale of this book will be contributed to the Mt. Pleasant Area Historical Society's History Center Fund dedicated to creating a proposed Mt. Pleasant History Center.
