

The Fledgling (WWI Centenary Series)

This work was written by an American who served in the Lafayette Flying Corps during the First World War. It details his experiences of training and becoming a pilot in France. This book is part of the World War One Centenary series; creating, collating and reprinting new and old works of poetry, fiction, autobiography and analysis. The series forms a commemorative tribute to mark the passing of one of the worlds bloodiest wars, offering new perspectives on this tragic yet fascinating period of human history. Each publication also includes brand new introductory essays and a timeline to help the reader place the work in its historical context.
