

The Shadows of Total War: Europe, East Asia, and the United States, 1919-1939 (Publications of the German Historical Institute)

The essays in this compelling collection examine the period between the two world wars of the twentieth century; one of the most exciting in the history of war. They explore the lingering consequences of World War I; the intellectual efforts to analyze this conflicts military significance; the attempts to plan for another general war; and several episodes in the 1930s that portended the war that erupted in 1939.
